

Learning The Truth To Better The Youth

The Communal Voice of SPS Ethnic Studies

January 12, 2019 3:00-6:00PM

Centilia Cultural Center at El Centro de la Raza
2524 16th Ave S 98144

Emceed by NAACP Youth Coalition

Celebrating our diverse community with music, dance, art, and food!

Open to all SPS Educators and Families

♥ Thank you to our sponsors:

Seattle Education Association ♥ Social Equity Educators

Southeast Seattle Education Coalition ♥ Families of Color Seattle

SPS Ethnic Studies Program ♥ El Centro de la Raza

You're Invited!

Learning the Truth to Better the Youth!

The Seattle Public Schools Ethnic Studies Program would like you to be our guest Saturday, January 12th!

Learn about our program while learning about the art, dance, and music of the cultures in our community.

In order to grow and thrive, the Ethnic Studies Program needs you! Come see how you are part of our work and how we can build lasting partnerships that benefit the youth in our city.

See you there!

Questions? Tracy Castro-Gill may have answers! tgill@seattleschools.org (206)252-0858