

Alaina McCallum

Seven year in SPS: Teach history at McClure Middle School

I believe in our collective power as a union to improve our working conditions and students learning conditions. Through my work as the RET lead, I enjoy collaborating with my colleagues and building a more inclusive environment that works to dismantle racism and all forms of oppression. I will work to build a more democratic and transparent union.